General News.

A Baptist convention is being held at Port Huron this week. The circuit court for St. Clair county has adjourned until September 19th. Work has been commenced on two more new business buildings in Capac. There are four cases of scarlet fever in the family of Herman Schroeder, in New Haven. Work has commenced distilling peppermint on the farm of Ferguson & Allen near Almont. Nearly 150 tons of fish have been shipped from Port Huron to New York by express, this summer. Charles Willert, who has been a merchant in Romeo for the past 25 years, has sold his general stock to John Bark. The proposition to bond the village of Deckerville for $1,300 for a new village hall and a fire apparatus was carried. Fred Armstrong, an eight year old Memphis boy, let his knife slip while whittling and destroyed the sight of one eye. A man by the name of Moher was arrested at the Flats on Saturday by customs officer Henry L. Avery on a charge of smuggling. It is reported that Gus Grieb, of Port Huron, has leased the Kalamazoo house at Kalamazoo. He will be assisted in the management by Charles Orth. George Odium, one of the early settlers of Sanilac county, died at his home just east of Carsonville last Friday, after an illness of many months. F. J. Haynes, one of the directors of the Port Huron Driving Park Association, says that Port Huron has altogether likely seen its last race meeting. Dr. Davis, of Smith, took some of his own medicine and came near dying. The medicine contained a poisonous dose of belladonna and was taken by mistake. Helen McIntyre, a bright young Port Huron woman, who had been connected with the editorial department of the Times for six years past, died on Monday. Harry Barron 12-year old son of Ex-postmaster Barron, of St. Clair, was drowned in St. Clair river while bathing on August 20. The body was recovered in an hour but life was extinct. Mrs. Chas. Davis, of Port Huron has commenced suit against the Port Huron Engine & Thresher Works for $10,000 damages. Her husband was killed by handling an electric light wire at the thresher works in March. William Smith, operator and station agent on the P. O. & N. R. y at Gagetown, is missing. He hired a team at Thornville two weeks ago and has not been heard of since. He was shortly to have been promoted to Inlay City. A fire at Marlette on Wednesday night of last week destroyed the lumber yard of W. B. McGill, where it originated, and the houses of Alfred Scott, Albion McIntosh and George Stephenson. Loss about $25,000 with $13,200 insurance. James Blackwell, who was convicted in Port Huron about two months ago and sentenced to the house of correction for ninety days, and who escaped from the boat at some unknown point while Sheriff Mallory was taking him to Detroit, was arrested on the streets in Detroit last Saturday where he was vended lead-pencils. Sheriff Mallory was summoned from Port Huron to care for the prisoner.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by Grant Holden, Druggist, Yale.
